Whispers from The Brighter World

Saturday, May 20, 2017 — 10:00 a.m.

Your heart aspires to the Divine, to this very special vibration that sends it into raptures. Receiving these messages is not just a simple contact, but the manifestation of the Divine in a special register where it is called upon. These writings will cross the barriers of time, as has been the case up to now with some sacred writings that have been kept and venerated for good reason. Only time can give similar facts their true worth. In time, the Sahaj Marg Mission will have an important place, one that is already taking shape for the good of a large number of abhyasis. Ashrams will become points of light and stability with respect to this particular aspect of life.

May all devote themselves more and more to this spiritual wealth capable of transforming the world. We are working towards the best in this regard. This is how it is.
