Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, May 25, 2017 – 10:00 a.m.

Life repeats itself; the same events recur tirelessly – identical actions that nourish it over the course of time. Human beings cannot escape their Karma, destiny is inevitable.

Following a spiritual path allows one to better grasp these laws, to understand them and to grow while accepting their rigour.

The true simplicity of Sahaj Marg helps one to progress and allows one to understand why conforming to it is good.

The wise human being seeks to advance against all odds. Each incarnation is a link in the magical chain wherein the Divine takes on its full measure.

It is so good to refine oneself, to truly be aware of it and to conform to the lessons that a life provides in all its phases of expression.

Each one must come to terms with his or her Karma – the divine laws are unavoidable.

May the best be for all.
