Whispers from The Brighter World

Tuesday, May 30, 2017 – 10:00 a.m.

To achieve the decisive stage, the ultimate goal, isn't this the best thing? A regular practice in which love carries the abhyasi brings about a transformation necessary for the elevation of the soul. The process is different for each person; how many incarnations follow one another before the emergence of 'the path', that in which the being is able to evolve at his or her pace. The choice of a spiritual path is made at the right moment, the advancement of the being responding to a profound and decisive call in this mystical epic that is essential for every human being. Very long, sometimes, is this journey, before the soul reaches its full blossoming. The path of Sahaj Marg is open to all seekers who are truly motivated on this initiatory journey. Genuine results are obtained here, where we happily measure the effects. This Sahaj Marg Mission meets the needs of one and all. Well-hidden but real are the effects of grace. All are nourished by it, each in their own way, but for the best possible.

So it is.
