Whispers from The Brighter World

Wednesday, May 31, 2017 — 10:00 a.m.

Tuning in to us every day is a real joy for your heart. Thousands of pages have been written, constituting a real asset for our Mission. Repetition is necessary for guiding all our readers. We follow them in their commitment of the heart in which different aspects are to be considered. Time does its work, accumulating that which is desirable for the good of each one and for the overall evolution of the Mission. These writings are to be taken as a true blessing — time, as always, will justify our remarks. May all our abhyasis take full advantage of this heavenly manna and progress towards the best that can be.

Blessings to all.
