Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, June 1, 2017 — 10:00 a.m.

The quantity of these messages is unique. Everything has an end — this is how it is. Our heart to heart contacts will continue, and they will do so in an excellent manner, let us emphasise. The best is yet to come for a loving heart that is so very faithful.

It would be good for the entire Mission to again take up the messages that have been given before, in order to highlight their full value; it is up to our dear and great son Kamlesh to see ...

Special blessings to all.
