Whispers from The Brighter World

Monday, November 14, 2016 — 10:00 a.m.

Our dear Kamlesh is continuing on his journey, and we help him in our own manner. Each one of us went through many experiences that were necessary for our evolution as spiritual Masters. They are not always easy; this responsibility is sometimes heavy, but highly rewarding. Such an honour is an unparalleled blessing. We retain within ourselves the profound mark of this very special commitment, one that is somewhat bewildering at first but highly rewarding in the long run. This choice is not made at random; it has long been programmed on the lengthy journey of incarnations.

This fact is not yet accepted by all. No matter, it is a decisive reality in each one's life. We are the fruit of our past lives. Whether we like it or not, we must come to terms with what we are, according to the laws of karma. Karma is so mysterious — the beginning of everything on this initiatory journey. What is its source? It is normal to ask oneself this question. Following a spiritual path like ours brings together events, temperaments, leading people to take a step, one that defines the rest of the journey. It is good to act accordingly; saving time is precious. Isn't reaching the goal the most important thing?

Special blessings for attaining the best possible.
