Whispers from The Brighter World

Sunday, November 13, 2016 — 10:00 a.m.

Try to go beyond the limits of materiality, to let yourself be carried by this vibration of love in which your being is enraptured. In such an atmosphere, it is so easy to tune in to us and to fully receive the very special nature of what is being offered. Our comments are repeated tirelessly; such is the very principle of life in its unique and creative characteristics. The Mission is evolving in its own manner, carried by a very special vibration that distinguishes it from other paths. We can emphasise it: these messages carry an energy from which surrendered hearts fully benefit. Everything happens in secrecy, where reason does not enter in. The true laws of life are ignored by the human being, who imagines them in his or her own manner, each person following their own path as they can.

Happy are those who, beyond material contingencies, take up the principles of a spiritual approach as proposed by us in Sahaj Marg. The egregore of this way of the heart is resplendent. It delights all the beautiful souls that come towards us in this celestial space where Sahaj Marg has a special place. It will expand more and more, attracting beings who did not know of Sahaj Marg when they were incarnate on Earth. What must be will be; this beautiful path will continue on its way for the good of the greatest number.

This is how it is.
