(Seminar with Patrick.)

Put yourself in tune with Patrick.

"C. is advancing; it is a noble soul, luminous. We are happy to see her progress. We follow her particularly... She is a silent and interiorized person; transmit this to her.

"This seminar at the ashram is very good for all the abhyasis attending it. An event like this re-motivates people; it should take place very often. Patrick is overburdened with work, but the importance of this place still escapes the majority, including the persons in charge. We understand your feeling of sadness about this situation; that is the way it goes for the moment. The arrival of a dynamic person in the region would be needed; we are working toward that. It takes time, my child, for things to be organized, but this notion [of time] is not important.

"We have said it enough. The future will show it. The dedication of this place is there, the vibratory load is important. Don't dwell on the internecine squabbles, which have raged for a long time. Go beyond all these human failings. Do not see it any more like that, but as a holy place.

"You should put more effort; your zeal for work is weak. Don't turn your nose up; you are lucky to have such a place. For pity's sake, become aware of it. Many of your brothers and sisters in the world would love to have the same. Think of it well. In fairness to this place, you should recognize it and it should, on no account, suffer from human turpitudes. You will make us happy; we are already grateful to you."
