Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, November 15, 2012 – 10:00 a.m.

Long is the way – strewn with pitfalls, sorrows and also joys. When a soul longs for the Divine and does whatever is necessary to get a glimpse of the light, it regards hardships inflicted in this world from another perspective. The Great Beings who left a strong impression on the minds of people have generally endured a great deal; this cannot really be explained – such are the laws. The human being is quite small in the face of this divine power which is unknown to humans, or even ignored and rejected by them. Opening up to this higher reality is already a big step forward. Working in this direction and choosing the way suitable for it denotes a true readiness to conquer the privileged space that opens the doors to the sacred. There begins a true journey whose goal is to achieve the ultimate dimension: that which leads the human being to complete detachment from materiality.

Everything is compatible here below: even a business person can start working on himself or herself without neglecting the necessities of life. A real call comes from the heart. The heart is the seat of the soul, wherein lies the real treasure. What must happen and must be done is accomplished step by step with the help of the living Master – thus that which did not seem possible is achieved. One by one, doors open and reveal the true nature of the incarnate being. Here, we are in an approach that allows the seeker to go beyond devotion. Devotion is still needed but it calls for a different approach enabling the seeker to take the step that will open the way to a true spirituality. These nuances are not necessarily understood; faith, trust and the propensity to love – these support what is specifically offered through our method in terms of an outcome. Thus is the wonder accomplished. That is how it is.
