Beloved Master
Revered Babuji Maharaj

Whispers from The Brighter World

Tuesday, May 10, 2005 – 10:00 a.m.

Being united with the heart of one's Master provides hope and courage to the aspirant. Life on Earth consists of ceaseless struggles, providing every possibility to reveal the best of oneself.

It is not useless to refer to a higher power; to understand this need is to have a sense of humility, which is necessary for any spiritual process. To recognize one's smallness in the face of the divine power, of the beings chosen to represent it in this world, shows the determination of the seeker to pursue this quest for the Divine, the true goal of an incarnation on Earth.

All our brothers and sisters have taken this step. They are eager to progress in the way and do not dwell on the friction that is inevitable between human beings, even when they belong to the same spiritual process. Human characteristics cannot be swept away with the wave of a magic wand. To progress also means to learn how to control oneself, to examine oneself, and especially to accept the differences in behaviour between people. The main thing lies elsewhere, in uniting all in a surge of fervour during a transmission of divine energy, of which each one becomes a receptacle and a privileged sensor according to one's inner aptitudes.

Unified in such circumstances, what do differences of perception represent? Spiritually, they mean nothing. Our aspirants are growing in wisdom, smoothing their rough edges. All are guided and supported by the Master in an ascending movement specific to the egregore of our way – a way which corresponds to the dawning era.

Babuji