You can see once again, coming from another source with this Christ-like message recorded in rather a special fashion, that love is a universal concept. It is the driving force of the world. Of a subtle and unique essence, it is intangible and, despite that, manifests in the whole of creation. Having a glimpse of it in oneself is the most beautiful experience that a human being can live. The vibrations of this world are dense, heavy and trying for us. We must go beyond this to come and manifest ourselves to you all.

The reign of love will eventually be established on Earth, but many vissicitudes will precede this golden age. Nothing is obtained easily. Life on Earth, since the mists of time, has passed through multiple upheavals. Since the caveman, the spiritual state has evolved, the condition has been refined and will continue to progress more and more to reach the sought-after level. This evolution is taking place slowly, everything is planned and set up in advance.

Continue on your way, since you belong to the chosen ones who have understood the logic, and how they must conduct their lives here below.

You have made choices which require another pace of life, another way of organizing it, in order to give the deep aspiration of the soul its true place – to drink from the divine source.

Be blessed in the pursuit of this noble goal.
