Whispers from The Brighter World

Wednesday, May 30, 2001 – 8:00 a.m.

As time goes on, you will all have evidence of what we are telling you. We proceed with caution; hearts are opening up to reality, slowly but irreversibly.

A new era is dawning on the horizon; highly elevated minds are opening the way to knowledge: these are the pioneers of this evolutionary cycle. Their conception of life is different from that of ordinary mortals. These special beings are the missionaries of modern times.

There are serious reference books that can give you all a broader idea of what we're talking about. The world is on the move; the dawn of a new day is breaking.

Keep an open mind, you will need it if you stay on this Earth long enough to follow this ascending movement. The shock of ideas will be hard, the old concepts will be disposed of, and confrontations will be inevitable. An important change cannot be achieved without clashes.

There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth, to put it mildly. One cannot revolutionize the world without commotion.

Remain serene, pray for the advent of a better world. To become a butterfly, a caterpillar goes through difficult stages, undetectable to your eyes. You can only see the result, and it's better that way.

Dream of this future world, call for it with all your soul – you will contribute to its realization.
