Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, June 7, 2001 – 10:00 a.m.

Most of these mutants we have mentioned earlier will have amazing psychic possibilities compared to those of today's human being, who will have no option but to get used to them. Whereas they do not admit easily that certain beings can communicate with the beyond – and many other things outside their reach – this raised awareness will be painful for the survivors of the current race, who will be stunned to witness this transformation.

But let us not rush things; as far as you all are concerned, your spiritual condition raises you above the average and places you in a satisfying state of receptiveness. So you can all rest assured, the simple fact that you believe in these messages shows your broadmindedness. You are at the cusp of two worlds. Consider all possibilities of change.

Prepare yourselves in your hearts for these future times that your descendants will experience. Pray, all of you, so that this mutation is achieved in the best possible way, in relation to the divine plan, whereby a new race of powerfully evolved beings will emerge, leading this planet to a desirable regeneration.
