Whispers from The Brighter World

Saturday, June 9, 2001 – 8:00 a.m.

You can see that your channelling abilities are intact. From this point of view there is nothing to fear; our contacts can continue.

Over time, we are bringing you all to greater open-mindedness, allowing you to grasp what lies hidden beneath some of our comments that seem innocuous. The truth is not so easy to see.

By practicing this reading regularly, you will all come to grasp what was not obvious before. In this domain, knowledge deepens by degrees, the intellect being excluded from this principle.

You must all approach this reading with a particular meditative mind. Wisdom infuses itself in you slowly, it does not appear to you in a flash.

Your hearts receive the divine seed, which then evolves gradually.

This long explanation is to make you all understand that a hasty reading does not give you the quintessence of these writings and of our literature in general.

Nothing about spiritual development is that simple; it is earned and hard-won. Isolate this work from your daily lives. Reserve for it a special place and try to approach it in a spirit of surrender and humility, setting aside, for a while, your usual criteria of judgement.

You will all advance in understanding, and the path of knowledge will widen before you.
