Whispers from The Brighter World

Friday, June 15, 2001 – 8:00 a.m.

Make the most of these moments spent with those who are dear to you. You are sharing an unusual experience, the importance of which you don't realize. You are the central figure in this affair, and you will be astonished at the outcomes. You all form a perfect and effective team that gives us complete satisfaction. What more could we ask, except to appreciate and thank you all for your constant efforts?

There are precious moments in life, encounters whose importance we don't always realize. Human beings rub shoulders with one another, appreciate each other and then move on to something else. They are likewise changeable in their feelings, interests and motivations.

As far as the team is concerned, do not forget that special bonds unite you, which, we hope, will be unbreakable.

You are contributing to a work that represents a specific asset but important for the Mission in the future. Be well aware of this. You are inspired pioneers in this conquest of hearts.

By making special nourishment available to these yearning hearts, the Mission will be offering them the means to advance across vast territories to be conquered peacefully, in universal love and the noblest surrender to the Divine.
