Whispers from The Brighter World

Saturday, June 16, 2001 – 10:00 a.m.

Calm your mind, otherwise we won't be able to communicate. Let all these problems resolve themselves one by one. In spite of them, make the most of this day, and the joy this visit brings you. These pure hearts are close to yours; you sing together the praises of the Divine. Surrendered to Him, you are all advancing in this work, benefitting from a special asset, and vibrating on the same harmonic line.

May your hearts rejoice, you have done a good job, it remains to complete this work. It has already influenced all of you deeply, you no longer see life from the same perspective. By getting fully involved in this service, you have taken a great step. May you organize your lives according to this commitment; you have a role to play, it is only just beginning. Your heart will retain the indelible imprint of this grace that makes you advance, day after day, on the basis of these writings that mark your soul deeply. It recognizes itself in them, it is abundantly nourished by them and exalts more and more each day: there is your reward. Keep this ardour in serving us, you are working for your own benefit.

May you all be blessed!
