Whispers from The Brighter World

Tuesday, June 19, 2001 – 8:00 a.m.

You are going to be able to resume this long love duet that nourishes your life. The current ordeal disturbs you and destabilizes your behaviour and your practice. We sympathize, my dear daughter, but we cannot spare you everything, thus is your path in life. Continue to fight courageously, your efforts will be crowned with success.

Everyone is faced with their own destiny and cannot shy away from it. Choices are made at the beginning and must subsequently be respected: this is the law of life.

Rebelling serves no purpose, acceptance alone sanctifies. It is not always easy to admit, but these struggles mould one's character. Faith, emerging victorious from this combat, elevates the soul and strengthens it. A sanctifying process can then begin – all conditions are conducive to this work. It remains to you all to measure your efforts on the basis of your profound aspirations.

Be calm and determined all of you, let your heart speak, it is an enlightened guide which cannot be mistaken. Trust it throughout your life, it won't disappoint you if it's inspired by faith and surrender. This kind of love will make a success of your lives and you will enrich them with a precious treasure.
