Whispers from The Brighter World

Friday, August 6, 1999 – 10:00 a.m.

Our messages always address the same issues; how could it be otherwise? We cannot speak about your society, family and professional lives; that is not our business. Everything is brought back to your behaviours because they manifest themselves again and again in all the situations we have just mentioned.

Your reactions can be a little different according to whether you are at the office, at home or in a seminar, for example. In this latter case, your best is supposed to express itself and also let some old samskaras resurface, freeing you from them.

One personality is manifold, like the truth. Your reactions can sometimes be completely different depending on the person you are talking with or your frame of mind at the moment.

What state of mind do you find yourself in? Several factors determine this, which explains these behaviours. The purpose is to lead you all to a state of serenity such that you are affected only very little by the events of life. The great sages in this world aspire to perfection, their efforts are geared towards that.

Start to see yourselves in this blessed state, take it as a model. Set yourselves this objective – why wouldn't you succeed. What others do, you can do too.

Become invulnerable – beyond the reach of wickedness, vice in all its forms, and human slyness.

We want you all to acquire souls as strong as impregnable bastions, fervent hearts turned towards the beautiful and the good, entirely nourished by celestial manna.

That is our wish for you, who are dear to us.
