Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, August 19, 1999 – 11:00 a.m.

The four of you who have access to these messages, do not forget that a bond has been forged between you, and that it will endure. You have been chosen to be taken into this confidence, it is a grace. Surround the one who is the linchpin of this affair, she truly needs it.

Be blessed for remembering this.
