My dear child, you are a sun for my heart. Our relationship is very special, do you realize it?

The Medium: My love is completely selfless; is it because of that?

It is one of the reasons, but there are others. The bonds of the heart cannot be explained, they are subtle and beyond formulas.

Babuji

The Medium: Babuji, you are thousands of suns within me, where I can take refuge when the world is unbearable to me and my body becomes difficult to inhabit.
