Beloved Master
Revered Babuji Maharaj

Whispers from The Brighter World

Saturday, September 11, 1999 – 10:00 a.m.

You mustn't lose all hope. This treatment may bring about an improvement. One should try everything, even knowing that a cure is not possible. Suffering less would already be progress.

For those who know you well, you are an example of courage.

You also know that we do everything in our power to help you. We will leave off there for today.

Babuji