Whispers from The Brighter World

Tuesday, September 14, 1999 – 8:00 a.m.

My dear child, teaching is not necessarily in sensational formulas. These three series show the progression of our relationship. The 'heart-to-heart' is of a slightly different tone, subtler at times. The journey you have all taken in assimilating the messages of the first two series should enable you to grasp certain truths that are not necessarily obvious.

It is about going ever more inside yourselves to reach deep layers where everything takes place in the silence of the heart, far from the noise of life.

To enter this holy temple, this vibrant space of love, it is necessary to gradually strip yourselves of all these layers of armour that make you somehow impervious to this work.

The senses are responsible for that; they are always on the alert and a hindrance to complete contemplation.

Divest yourselves of certain useless burdens. Don't let trivialities get to you.

Go deeper and deeper towards interiorization to enter this space of light that will make you forget the harshness of life and taste joys you do not suspect.

Refine yourselves; forge ahead, but inside yourselves. The revelation awaits you there.

Be patient and ardent in your search. The victory is at the end of the road.
