Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, September 16, 1999 – 8:00 a.m.

Free your mind, come into your bubble. Otherwise we won't be able to communicate – is that what you want? You see how hard it is on certain days to free one's mind.

Make better use of 'the key' I've given you all, with more conviction.

This is the point on which you must now direct all your efforts. Sitting back and saying the Master does everything, that's a bit limited and reserved for beginners. You all have to act and to take your spiritual destiny in hand. You've come far enough to understand that the Master can act only with your consent and your personal work.

Let us unite our efforts to reach the goal. Be both completely surrendered and active, in the way we mean it. You must all collaborate, while being malleable.

Do your practice exactly as we ask you to, but with this 'additional something' [the symbol] which you all know, to help begin your concentration. It is not a gimmick; really try, persevere, and you will see the results. Starting with a simple element, one can go far. Scientists who have marked the history of humankind demonstrate the reality of this assertion.

Get down to work, with all our blessings.

The contact was good at 8 a.m, we will not add to it. Get your strength for the day, which will be busy because of your health condition. Good meditation.
