Whispers from The Brighter World

Friday, September 17, 1999 – 10:00 a.m.

To follow a spiritual way with great rigour, it's difficult.
The sacred door is narrow; it is not easy to pass through. Its approach is accomplished with ever-increasing subtlety.

May you all be vibrant with love; play this card, let it be your 'open sesame!' We would love to see you in this magic and luminous circle, ecstatic in the face of so much beauty.

Your progress is real, do not doubt it; don't be impatient, just surrendered before the divinity.

See yourselves achieving the achievable, even if it seems to you distant and inaccessible. Believe in your Master, trust him completely, he will not disappoint you.
