Whispers from The Brighter World

Saturday, September 18, 1999 – 8:00 a.m.

On this day particularly, may all five of you be united in thought and in the love of the Master. We will do the rest.

We will come towards you all to honour our daughter and to thank all of you for the work you are doing with all your heart. This is not a day like others, yet appearances will show nothing special, just the day-to-day and the usual. Its singularity will lie on a more subtle plane, hardly perceptible to your senses. Be very assiduous in doing the interiorization work we ask all of you to do.

We repeat ourselves; do not weary of hearing us always saying the same thing, even though we address the topic from various angles.

We must sensitize you all on this point, and it is by insisting that we will manage.

Let your hearts form a circle in this meditation, around our beloved daughter.

May you all be blessed.
