(For Patrick.)

Try nevertheless to give him this message, even if you think that he is not interested to have it.

"Some day, he will come towards you, whether he likes it or not. He holds you in esteem, but in a way, he feels uncomfortable with you."

Birthday of Babuji

You will recover slowly. You need to rest. Don't take things to heart. We watch over you, my child. You have my blessing.

"Extend my thanks to Lorrain; I keep an eye on him. He is making progress; he has done good inner work. His life will change. He will be able to make the most of all its positive elements. Many things will occur in his life; he is adequately equipped to face up to things. He should never forget that his strength is inside him. We will help him in his struggle. He is a faithful servant of the Mission. He has my blessing.

"May you benefit from today's love and grace!"

The Medium: "Thank you, Babuji, for this message!"

"I trust you did not believe that I was going to forget you..."

Mahasamadhi of Lalaji

Don't worry about future events; carry on your way, you are very lucky. An important work is currently being done, particularly on Europe. Sahaj Marg will have to be cleansed one day. Bear the shield of faith to counter temptation. I bless you, my daughters. Make your practice well; it is your most precious good."

(Francoise and I have being exchanging about the future predictions concerning the great upheavals on the planet; hence Babuji's message.)
