Birthday of Babuji

You will recover very gently. You need some rest. Take things less to heart. We watch over you, my child. You have my blessing.

Extend my thanks to Lorrain; I keep an eye on him. He is making progress, he is doing good inner work. His life will change. He will be able to draw from it all the positive elements. Many things will occur in his life, he is well equipped to face up to them. Let him never forget that his strength lies within him. We will help him in his struggle; he is a loyal servant of the Mission. He has my blessing.

Be in the love and grace of this day.

The Medium: Thank you, Babuji, for this message!

You didn't think I was going to forget you...
