I know that you should not be rushed and that you are very tired, but you know what its like to lose one's companion. When possible, and if you consent to it, we will see how to contact him. Be courageous. I am very well placed to understand you. I was longing to leave this world. I am finally liberated and close to our Beloved. One day we will all meet again, and we will be happy in His presence. I am taking up too much of your strength, but you will be less tired after having meditated.
