Whispers from The Brighter World

Friday, March 31, 2000 – 10:00 a.m.

A powerful flame is lit within you; happy are those who see it and will see it. We need Earthlings willing and prepared to manifest the divine omnipotence, an abstract notion for many of their fellow human beings.

Thus will it be until the end of time, and this work will have to be carried out until the very end. The darkness and doubt in which they are immersed will be transformed; they will be torn to shreds and the light will spread over the whole Earth.

The Earth too is evolving, like the beings populating it. Everything happens slowly, but each one's destiny is fulfilled, whatever the cost.

Do not weaken; we are moving forward with our project. Keep it constantly in mind; we support you.
