Sunday, April 2, 2000 – 10:00 a.m.

Everything is done for the glory of God. One day, you too will help souls heal and find the path that leads to the light.

We will ultimately become one and our action will be multidimensional. There are many cogs in the celestial mechanics. Human beings believe their technology is very advanced; it is a mere gadget compared to this one.

The Medium: Venerable, I am happy to move forward with you.

Each one of us here has our own particularities. I have to intervene in your journey to help you set a new course; it's in the order of things.

The foundations of our contract are well laid; let's move ahead, you are ready for it. Don't be afraid, everything is for the best.

The Venerable