We will proceed with these messages until you are capable of acting fully in the way we intend without needing this support. We are forging an armour for you so that you can be more effective in your action. Be patient, let yourself be carried with the passing days, without trying to see or understand.

You know well that spiritual laws do not sit well with human reasoning. What can a 'little fellow' do in the face of the absolute grandeur of the whole of creation. Each person is only an atom without much importance, which can multiply or disappear to be re-created in some other sphere. Remember your motto: 'All is nothing'. One can add, creation is a vast vibratory mass, in perpetual motion and constant transformation. Nothing is immutable; there lies the tragedy of the human being, who cannot admit it.
