Whispers from The Brighter World

A Fourth Revelation

Sunday, November 14, 1999 - 8:00 a.m.

After all these years of dependence on others, of confinement and sufferings, how could one not be sometimes irritated by the hassle of life, which adds to all that you have to endure?

"Do not make yourself unhappy with that. Gain in stature, and come and join us. Imagine an immense heart with thousands of stars inside, each one being more brilliant than the others, and you being among them, enjoying a privileged moment. Rejuvenate yourself, my child, you need it. Your circle does not realise the effort you must make to put up with your life. Are we not always your comfort?

"We are happy to see what is being prepared for my son. Our intermediaries are working promptly with their usual effectiveness, for which we thank them. We hope that a means of communication with him, simple and direct, will be found. On your part, think on it to make some suggestions, if possible, but you should wait until he expresses a request.

"May love always guide you in all your acts; see only what is good for the other and what is good in him. Life is not easy for anybody, but some have a heavier burden than others; it is up to you to try to put a balm on their hearts. Guided by your heart, you will find the right words and will make a generous gesture."
