Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, April 13, 2000 – 10:00 a.m.

As you can see, if we try to go into detail on the secrets of the universe, it is tantamount to fiction for you and is not of great interest. Isn't the main thing that we communicate and address topics within the limits of human comprehension?

Are your lives on Earth not difficult enough to cope with?

One day, you will understand that the great achievements take place in obscurity and that they are not within your reach. To each their own field; it's better not to wander from the programme set for this incarnation. The bee cannot become a butterfly, but its action is critical within the community. See through to the end what the future holds for you, and when the time comes you will, for good, 'take flight'.
