Whispers from The Brighter World

Wednesday, September 22, 1999 – 8:00 a.m.

My child, at this stage, we can only repeat ourselves in the messages, as we also do in the books and speeches. Life itself is constantly beginning anew, as much in one's own life as in the cycles of nature. That's what characterizes life on Earth; you all must conform to it and adapt yourselves to these ceaseless repetitions.

For our part, we cannot give you other revelations that could not be accepted when the circle opens up.

We have given certain revelations, related to the origin of great religions, that will not be understood by all.

It will take some time and evidence, especially, for these remarks to be accepted. But for that too, never mind! With the passing of centuries, minds are opening up to knowledge, and the time will come when this phenomenon will accelerate by force of circumstance. Great mutations of a universal nature will bring about a transformation of humankind.

All that is not for tomorrow; it is a vast programme that will cover the centuries to come.

Your current incarnation will not witness its realization, so don't worry about it.

Commit yourselves only to your own evolution.
