Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Sunday, November 14, 1999 - 10:00 a.m.

The Medium: "Forgive me, Babuji, for not being as perfect as I would like to be. I have yet a long way to go to be worthy of your love."

Fortunately for you, our measures are not as you believe them to be. You have character and willpower, and you face up to things, whereas many would have given up; therefore, please move on to something else and smile at life.

"You know what we expect of you: that you should remain courageous and that our contacts should still continue, for a long time. We have yet to finish this series, and yet you would like to cut yourself off from everything and everyone! Do you believe this is what your circle wishes? We know that you are longing for a certain form of retirement, but could you live in great isolation?

"Your contacts with us and with all the beings that move around you are essential to your functioning. You are not a solo person; you need to communicate with your fellow men, and even if you are very tired – believe us – you should remain in the tide of life.

"Isolation is not necessarily a solution to lassitude. Regain courage; we are close to you and we surround you as much as possible."
