Whispers from The Brighter World

Wednesday, October 13, 1999 – 8:00 a.m.

In these messages, we can use another language, more intimate. Sensitivity is allowed to surface, the impulses of the heart manifest more easily. It is a tête-à-tête and, in the moment, it's easier to let one's feelings show and to express them in all simplicity.

That is why this mode of transmission is unique. Two souls communicate without fear of showing their love. We will not come back to this subject; we have delved, over the preceding days, into the importance of love and its different facets. It is up to you all to work on this point. As it develops, love will embellish your life. Never deprive yourselves of expressing your good feelings to your fellow beings. Knowing how to communicate is a great strength in life.
