Whispers from The Brighter World

Friday, October 15, 1999 – 8:00 a.m.

You all who have access to these messages, do you realize how lucky you are? You are a little saturated with them, but all that will settle and let an imprint emerge, deep in your hearts, which you do not even suspect.

In the future, open minds will delight in them; they will focus much more on the content than on the apparently simple form.

They will be able to derive the quintessence from that content. As for yourselves, you will need the benefit of hindsight to realize what you have received. It is about a rather special transmission, which you cannot really assess.

The important thing is to benefit from it, even if that creates some constraints for you. We know that your organization functions well, you all take part in this work with your hearts.

Always let the heart speak, act, and open up to life in all its forms – you will no longer see it in the same way.
