Whispers from The Brighter World

Friday, October 15, 1999 – 10:00 a.m.

We have had a long series on Love; let's leave it at that for the time being. The topic is inexhaustible and we will revert to it. Love must be present for all of you at every moment of your life, and it must direct your life. You will not see your fellow beings with the same eyes anymore, some of them will seem more bearable to you.

Everyone's life is fraught with obstacles – this is how it is. The tragedies it has in store for you all can affect you very deeply and modify your behaviour by making you unpleasant, even aggressive.

One should always try to understand before judging. The character of some individuals is difficult to bear; they suffer from it sometimes, when they realize that they spoil the lives of others.

Everything is a teaching and can benefit both parties. Do your level best, always surrendered to your Master who sees into the depths of people's hearts.
