Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Tuesday, November 16, 1999 - 10:00 a.m.

That my son likes receiving our messages does not in any way detract from his greatness as a spiritual Master. He is incarnate and experiences human feelings in the same way as all of you. He is very tired and sad to be separated from his Master, unhappy to have lost his life partner, and tired of all the difficulties which are inherent in an incarnation and of the responsibilities that fall onto him with respect to fulfilling his Earthly mission.

"He too is longing to come and rest on the celestial fields, with us, but he must go until the end without weakening, supported by our love for him.

"Whatever the role you have to play, that is the way it goes for each one of you.

"Do not give up, even in difficult periods; you should know that you all must go through unpleasant periods; it is the nature of things. You have a great treasure: faith. Therefore you have the most important thing.

"Direct your eyes towards 'Him' who came to help you and to guide you towards what you all aspire to: the total and unique union with the Creator of all things."
