Whispers from The Brighter World

Friday, October 22, 1999 – 8:00 a.m.

Sahaj Marg is at the beginning of its existence. It will have to overcome heavy difficulties. The madness of humankind will deal it blows of all sorts, but it will do as the wise ones who pick themselves up after their trials, strengthened and more lucid in the face of life. A great spiritual way cannot gain a foothold without clashes.

The roots of Christianity run very deep.

Even if the tree shows obvious signs of old age, minds are very strongly impressed. Whether practicing the religion or not, human beings are subjected to a kind of atavistic hold.

New times will come when light will be shed on all that has come to codify such a beautiful teaching and allow it to degenerate. For centuries, narrow-minded and sectarian people have had a stranglehold on individuals by making them feel guilty, by threatening them with hellfire. How could Christianity come to such a point and do so much harm. That is where immoderation and sectarianism lead.
