Whispers from The Brighter World

Wednesday, October 27, 1999 – 10:00 a.m.

Love your Master as much as you love me, you will make me so happy. He would like to communicate with you humanly, but the language is a serious barrier, in addition to the one you've created mutually. This behaviour is childish; please do me a favour and let your heart open up completely. It would be high time after all these years spent in the Mission.

He needs to be supported, loved and understood by beings like you – completely selfless. See also the human person whose life is not easy.

My son carries a heavy burden. He needs love, not idolatry, a love commensurate with his spiritual person. A love as we understand it – true, spontaneous, going towards him directly from all your hearts to his.

We don't ask anything more of you. No need for letter or fax to express to him what you all feel. Your good thoughts represent a force; they unite with others and reach him inevitably.

Do that; love him with respect for his human nature and his spiritual dimension.
