Whispers from The Brighter World

Friday, October 29, 1999 – 10:00 a.m.

It will still take a lot of time, many upheavals and ordeals of all sorts, for the majority of people to recognize the existence of the divine power; it is in the order of things. The future will see an acceleration in this area, and people's consciousness will open up to the magnificent reality. To that end, we are working tirelessly for the achievement of this great work: the manifestation of the golden age in all its splendour.

All of you, our aspirants, are contributing to this success. Your personal work, your results, add up and form a whole, fostering this work of redemption.

Each of you has your own usefulness, a social role to play. But particularly the fact that you have understood the fundamental importance of a spiritual method diligently pursued, places you among the frontrunners.

Your souls were ready in this incarnation to find 'the Master', the path suitable for leading you to the highest level.

You are luminous points on this Earth. You are, more than anyone, in the hand of God. Rejoice, make choices in life appropriate to what you want to obtain. Whether or not you choose to serve, never forget the importance of your personal work and its impact in general.

Dive into yourself, my child, and forget the harshness of life.
