Do not lose heart; this treatment will help you. The human body is a wonderful tool, but it can also give much suffering. Your evolution entailed this painful stage. We are trying to alleviate it through the various methods of care that you are benefiting from.

"Our telling you that we, the Masters you venerate, underwent this sad fate while being incarnate cannot comfort you. We understand; this new hitch is painful to support.

"My dear daughter, we know that we can ask you that. Be with your Master in spirit, who at the expense of a great tiredness will set off once again to go towards the abhyasis, our faithful brothers and sisters who are also fighting, one way or the other, to cope with their life.

"This world is not an idyllic place where everyone lives in joy and love. Even if that is also part and parcel of the programme, one must put up with all the related bad aspects.

"What else can be said? – that this life is not eternal here below and that you should not despair. Even when faith is not enough to really help you, you should try not to lose sight of the ultimate goal."
