August 1992
Montpellier

The Medium: "Babuji, I cannot stand suffering any more!"

If you were not suffering, you would do foolish things. You have enough energy since you neglect your abhyas to do things of little importance."

(During Jean-Michel's visit, after a message intended for him, the following message is addressed to me.)

"Don't worry about your body; I am working through it, on your soul. You have to go through this, if you want to be with me one day."

Babuji

September 1992
Montpellier

The Medium: "Babuji, I beg you, at least let me be able to go down to do some shopping in the district."

Did you ever lack anything? Sturdy souls are moulded in the crucible of suffering."

Babuji