Whispers from The Brighter World

Tuesday, November 30, 1999 – 10:00 a.m.

It would be reasonable not to push too hard today. We will simply say this: the Mission is advancing, the Mission is growing, its future is all set. Not only are the foundations solid, but the edifice will not cease rising over the course of centuries.

We have been the pioneers of this beautiful history for humanity.

It isn't easy for you all to realise its importance, not only for your time, but for future times as well.

Be happy to be on a path that is solidly taking root and that will mark this century and the ones to follow.

You are at the dawn of a new era where the spiritual, over time, must hold a prominent place. Even if it does not resolve all problems, it represents salvation for people of goodwill. We will conclude on this optimistic note.

Rest, my child, learn how to better manage your energies; you can't afford to waste them.
