Whispers from The Brighter World

Wednesday, December 8, 1999 – 10:00 a.m.

In certain circumstances, mystics must allow themselves to be 'carried away' without wanting to control the situation. That is what you are trying to do most of the time; it's imperative that you correct yourself. Your Cartesian mind is always on sentry duty; you need to let go of that too. On the spiritual level, you no longer belong to yourself; therefore, especially in these moments, be completely surrendered.

What are you risking? You have been trusting us for a long time, so realise that a part of yourself is escaping you more and more, and that it must live its life, if we can put it that way.

It can't be said of you that you are fanciful and live in dreams; for observers, this state of affairs can give weight to the work you do for us.

One must be strong to be a good medium; there are limits not to be exceeded, and your balance is very precious to us.

My dear child, we are putting you on the spot once again, and you don't like it. Your reaction to the 8:00 a.m. message is unfounded. It must appear in its place with the others.

So it is, that's all.
