Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, December 9, 1999 – 10:00 a.m.

To say that it takes all sorts to make a world sounds trite, and yet it is a necessity that may not be obvious to you, but is real.

Each element of a body, whatever it may be, is important. There is a wealth of examples around you and it is not useful to dwell on the subject.

We have been clear as far as you are all concerned and you have understood.

You ask us to be the best possible tool for us; each day this is included in your prayers. You are in effect a tool, and we use your gifts. You are all tools with your respective possibilities. Isn't the essential thing to be part of this Mission that is dear to you all and is advancing strongly towards the future? You belong to this 'whole' that will mark humanity; it is important for you to understand it well. You have a personal responsibility in this great spiritual undertaking of the century.

Meditate well on this aspect of things, and may the light shine fully in you.
