Whispers from The Brighter World

A Fourth Revelation

Sunday, November 21, 1999 - 8:00 a.m.

The human being is of such complexity; we do not really know how to act with you. We should neither shock you and exhaust your patience, nor give traumatising predictions to you. We do not blame you; we only try to draw your attention to some pitfalls that are likely to slow down your evolution.

"We are not 'bogey-men' and we only want the best for you. You have requested us to go further in these messages. It is true that there are many of them, but we should take advantage of the opportunity we are granted to transmit them to you. That will not last indefinitely and you will have the remainder of your life, if you so wish, to read and reread them.

"You may find them boring, repetitive and they may wear you out. If you regard them like that, we will not be shocked. You will thus lose out, incontestably, but that is your business. We offer them to you and you use them. We will continue as long as we can possibly do so. Their future life will be as you will decide by paying attention to them. They are in your hands, they are entrusted to you, and it is up to you to decide the next steps."
