Whispers from The Brighter World

Tuesday, December 21, 1999 – 10:00 a.m.

We love you all; never doubt it, even if your life is not as you would like it to be. We give just as much to each of you, but your paths are different and adapted to what you must achieve during this passage on Earth.

God has multiple resources and He knows how to ensure you receive exactly what you need.

Be happy with your fate whatever it may be. Do not see injustices where there are none; your lives are different, that's all.

Love one another. At the risk of repeating ourselves, we say to you: accept one another as you are, with your particularities. Look at the most unfortunate, the most destitute, as this year draws to a close, when so much money is being spent trivially, while a large part of the beings that populate the Earth are dying of hunger; think on it.
