Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, December 23, 1999 – 10:00 a.m.

You are all but one and the same body. The advancement of some benefits the others. Always rejoice in the good that comes to a brother or sister. You all will reach, one day, the goal we promise you. You are moving towards the year 2000 with beautiful prospects. Let your hearts open to the beneficial rays of love. Connect yourselves more and more to the Divine and let yourselves be carried away in this transcendent euphoria. Be united with the living Master you find within you. May you all be full of joy and love for humanity at this year's end; that would make us happy. We want the best for you, such is our constant concern. You are dear to our hearts and we rejoice in your progress. This method – so simple, so divested of superfluity – bears admirable fruit.

In retrospect, we can measure its impact, and the results obtained are a true divine blessing. It's up to you all to make the most of it; be thirsty for love and grow in it, under our benevolent attention.
